Balance Transfer Important Notes

- If you have interest-free days on your account you will not be eligible for interest-free days until the balance transfer amount is paid in full.
- You can transfer any outstanding amount of $500 or more, up to 95% of your available St.George Credit Card limit.
- St.George can refuse any application for balance transfer (e.g. overdue or over limit accounts amongst other things).
- St.George will refuse any application for balance transfer if your other Card Account is not in good order.
- St.George will transfer the amount(s) requested, subject to the conditions of use of the St.George Credit Card.
- You must continue to make payments on your other Card Account in accordance with their account terms and conditions. There can be delays in processing balance transfers.
- St.George is not responsible for any overdue payment or interest incurred on your other Card Account.
- St.George will not close your other Card Accounts.
- Balance transfers will only be processed on active accounts.
- There are no interest-free days for balance transfers. Interest is calculated on transferred amounts from the date your balance is transferred.
- Balance transfers will not be accepted from business, St.George Group or international credit card accounts.
- Balances of loans or overdrafts cannot be transferred.
- Subject to these notes, St.George will make the transfer you request, if you accept its offer of a St.George Credit Card account.
- Concessional interest rates will be removed in the event you contravene your Credit Card terms.
- You must have a record of keeping your St.George Credit Card Account in good order.
- Any applicable special balance transfer rate period commences on the date we approve your credit card facility. The special balance transfer interest rate period ends 6 months later, regardless of when any balance transfer request is processed by us.
