

n e w s r e l e a s e

1 December 2004
RE021204

St.George Group recognised as 'Bank of the Year' at Money Awards

St.George has been awarded the top award 'Bank of the Year' at the annual Money magazine 'Best of the Best' Awards yesterday. The Group was further recognised with awards for Best Margin Loans, Best Industry Funds and Master Trusts and also for Australian and International Shares.

St.George was successful in the following categories:

Winner - Bank of the Year

Winner - Best Margin Loans

Winner - Best Industry Funds and Master Trusts Australian Shares - ASGARD

Winner - Best Industry Funds and Master Trusts International Shares - ASGARD

Equal Winner - Best Rated Super Funds Australian Shares - Advance

Equal Winner - Best Rated Australian Share Funds - Advance

Finalist - Best Rated International Share Funds - Advance

Finalist - Best Residentially Secured Business Overdraft - BankSA/St.George Business Maximiser

Finalist - Best Reverse Mortgage - Seniors Access Plus

Finalist - Best Business Credit Card - Visa Business Advantage

Finalist - Best Low Doc Loan

Finalist - Best Cash Management Account - ASGARD eCASH

St.George CEO Gail Kelly accepted the 'Bank of the Year' award on behalf of the Group saying "This award recognises each person in the Group, who goes the extra mile for their customers and ensures every customer experience is great. It truly is an honour win this award and be recognised by the industry in this way."

Geoff Lloyd, CEO SEALCORP was pleased to accept the awards for Best Industry Funds and Master Trusts for both Australian and International Shares.

Andrew Black, Head of Margin Lending accepted the Best Margin Loan award. This is the third year in a row that St.George has been recognised by Money.

Kate Mulligan, Managing Director for Advance, noted that Advance's achievement confirmed its capability in offering consistent, quality solutions to investors for over 20 years.

Ends...

Media

Jeremy Griffith

Corporate Relations

02 9236 1328 or 0411 259 432